CALL TO ORDER AND WELCOME

Chairman Thrift called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Chairman Thrift led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INVOCATION

Mayor Trapnell gave the invocation.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the meeting was for the city and county officials to get together to discuss shared services.

COMMUNITY CENTER

The first item was the Community Center. The Community Center building and property belongs to the City of Metter. The Candler County Commissioners has operated it under an old agreement from years ago. The county would like to turn this building back over to the city. The county has some items stored in the building but should be able to move it all out in one day. They will vacate and clean the building and would like to turn it back over to the city as soon as possible. The county will also turn all the records over to the city.

ADJOURNMENT

After no further discussion, Councilwoman made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Councilman seconded the motion, and the vote was unanimous.

The meeting was adjourned at p.m.

Angie Conner, City Clerk
